

About

A progressive financial solution company built for business. We have launched a digital Lay-By offering that is designed to let customers buy without using credit and build a more inclusive African economy through one central system that is trusted, reliable, simple, and fast - both online and at point of sale.